This portal is designed to help you better understand your application(s). Below are some helpful hints to help you navigate through the portal.

1. FAQ - this link contains a list of Frequently Asked Questions about the applications. Follow this link to read information such as which browsers are supported, how to configure your browser and what type of internet connection is recommended.
2. Release Notes - this section contains information on the latest enhancements to your application(s).
3. Training Videos - this section contains some useful help videos on how to use some of the basic functionalities of your system. Just as Collectronics' applications evolve, so does the Support Portal - in time, you will notice videos being updated and added.
